

The Wellington School is an independent, coeducational, prekindergarten through grade 12, college-preparatory day school dedicated to preparing citizens who achieve, lead, and find fulfillment in a global community. The Wellington family expects integrity; fosters mutual respect; embraces diversity; inspires each person to discover and strive to meet his or her unique potential; and celebrates excellence in character, academics, the arts, and athletics.

Job Title: Upper School World Language Teacher

Office or Division: Upper School

Reports To: Head of Upper School

Effective Dates: August 2017-June 2018

Name of Employee:

Position Summary:

We are looking for a dynamic and motivated individual to not only teach the Spanish language to our students, but also to excite and infuse them with a love of culture and travel. Candidates should recognize the importance of diverse teaching strategies and modes of assessment. The ability to also teach foundational French courses is a plus. A master's degree (or significant work toward one) and recent teaching experience is preferred.

Key Responsibilities:

- Teach four-five sections of Spanish (and/or possibly French).
- Serve as an upper school advisor.
- Serve as an involved and committed member of a grade level team.
- Participate in and actively pursue professional development opportunities based on our school mission and goals.

Qualified candidates should send materials before February 8, 2017, to Lauren Spitzer, upper school assistant, at spitzer@wellington.org. All candidates should include:

- Completed application
- Cover letter
- Resume
- Statement of educational philosophy