

FACULTY JOB DESCRIPTION

Position/Title: Upper and Middle School Latin Teacher
Appointment: School Year 2019-2020
Reports To: Directors of the Upper and Middle Schools

Laurel School is seeking talented faculty who will put our students first and strive to make a difference in their lives. We seek to attract culturally and academically diverse faculty who thrive on being engaged participants in our academic community. The most successful candidates see opportunities before problems and can laugh at themselves while succeeding in a fast-paced, forward-thinking educational environment. Laurel lives its mission: to inspire each girl to fulfill her promise and to better the world. We continually challenge our community to dream, dare, and do.

Position Summary:

We are seeking a dynamic and talented teacher for our Latin program, which spans from Seventh to Twelfth Grade. Starting in the Middle School, the Latin sequence at Laurel seeks to build students' understanding of and appreciation for Ancient Roman culture, literature, and history. The ideal teacher develops and fosters strong language skills among students, while inspiring them to approach authentic texts with confidence. She or he emphasizes cultural and linguistic connections in class, is able to differentiate instruction based on learning styles, and uses a variety of assessment strategies. She or he will also need to collaborate with World Language teachers across divisions and participate in the implementation of an articulated language curriculum.

Duties and responsibilities include:

- Preparation and implementation of daily lessons
- Delivery of assignments and timely evaluation of all relevant class work and student progress
- Design and implementation of appropriate, authentic assessments and support of individual student learning styles
- Timely and proactive communication with parents about student progress
- Advising a small group of students
- Collaboration with other members of the faculty, administration and staff on experiential, interdisciplinary and community-based opportunities that add to the school community
- Active participation in all faculty and staff meetings
- Effective and timely communication with varied school constituencies in person, through email and through voice mail
- Support of divisional and school-wide initiatives through committee work, where appropriate
- Supervision and/or participation in non-academic activities, including lunch, field trips, arrival and dismissal, and study hall
- Other duties as assigned

Required Qualifications:

The successful candidate has advanced command of Latin and experience teaching Classics at the secondary or post-secondary level. She or he ideally holds an advanced degree in (e.g., language, literature, pedagogy, etc.), possesses excellent English writing and speaking skills, and has basic information technology and computer skills. Previous experience teaching girls is helpful but not required, as is previous experience in a private educational setting. A passion for working with adolescent students is essential.

Salary:

Laurel offers competitive compensation and a comprehensive benefits package.
