

Physical Education Teacher (Full Time)

The Seven Hills School seeks a full-time Physical Education Teacher. The position involves teaching sections of physical education, serving as a student advisor, and coaching one or more sports.

Preference is given to candidates who have a degree in the field and experience teaching. Candidates should work well with colleagues, have strong organizational skills and habits, be creative, and have a desire to work with young people.

An equal opportunity employer, Seven Hills encourages candidates with diverse backgrounds to apply for this position. Candidates should apply by clicking here. Full applications should include letter of interest, resume, transcripts, and letters of recommendation.