

Lower School First Grade Teacher

Andrews Osborne Academy Lower School is seeking an experienced First Grade Teacher.

The successful candidate must possess the interest and energy to thrive within a lively workplace, a genuine love of working with young children, a sense of humor and the ability to work in a highly collaborative and collegial environment, as well as, be comfortable incorporating the use of various technologies to support student learning.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Key duties for faculty members include classroom instruction; effective communication with students, parents and colleagues; active participation in the work of the department and division on curriculum and pedagogy

The First Grade teacher will:

- Display flexibility, optimism, creativity, high expectations, and a growth mindset
- Manage the purchasing of classroom supplies and the classroom budgets (field trip/activities)
- Participate enthusiastically in the school community outside the classroom
- Develop positive working relationships with colleagues, students and families
- Demonstrate excellent communication skills, both written and oral
- Perform other duties as assigned by the Director and Head of School

Qualifications:

- Must love working with and have a deep understanding of the developmental needs of elementary aged children
- Bachelor's degree at a minimum
- Elementary licensure required (non-tax certificate acceptable)
- First grade teaching experience preferable at an Independent School
- References should speak to an applicant's ability to be a dynamic teacher, to be professional, creative, and innovative in the implementation of school programming

Application Process:

Email a letter of interest, the contact information of three references, and an updated resume to Theresa Frisbie, Lower School Director, at tfrisbie@andrewsosborne.org.