

Lower School Theater / Drama Teacher

Seven Hills seeks a full-time Lower School Theater Teacher beginning in the 2026-2027 school year.

This position includes the teaching of PK-5th grade drama classes on both Doherty and Lotspeich campuses for the 2026-2027 school year, until the lower schools unify on the Hillsdale Campus in 2027-2028.

The Lower School theater teacher designs and teaches a developmentally appropriate curriculum that spans the full range of theatrical experience: character development, puppetry, improvisation, and scene work. The position also includes responsibility for collaborating with music teachers for a variety of productions, including the 5th-grade musical. The ideal candidate brings genuine enthusiasm with the adaptability to engage and support students at every stage of their development.

Responsibilities include:

- Teaching theater curriculum across Lower School graders with attention to age-appropriate skills and materials
- Overseeing all aspects of production, including technical direction, lighting, sound, and costumes
- Collaborating with other performing arts faculty across all divisions
- Communicating clearly and warmly with students, faculty, and families
- Maintaining an organized, energized, and inclusive classroom environment
- Upholding the mission of The Seven Hills School
- Reporting to the Head of Lotspeich and Head of Doherty for supervision and evaluation during the 2026-2027 school year, and the Head of the Doherty Lotspeich Lower School beginning in the 2027-2028 school year
- Performing other teaching duties, ancillary duties, and record-keeping tasks as deemed necessary and appropriate by the division head

Qualifications:

Candidates must have, at a minimum, an undergraduate degree in the field, be knowledgeable about all aspects of production, and have the ability to work well with able and highly motivated students, as well as students with a range of learning differences.

Personal qualities sought include patience, energy, flexibility, empathy, and a sincere desire to work in close partnership with classroom teachers and families.

As a part of our commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, The Seven Hills School is looking to hire passionate educators who demonstrate equity-centered classroom practices. Applicants should have proven success supporting underrepresented student identities to have an equitable experience in their school.

Candidates should apply online by clicking here. Full applications should include a cover letter, resume, transcripts, and letters of recommendation.

The Seven Hills School is an equal opportunity employer dedicated to promoting all forms of diversity in the workplace and our student body. We strongly urge all qualified individuals to apply.
